Ceremony of Jewish Circumcision Held Sunday.

Sunday at noon Rev. A. Fram of Dallas, circumcised the ten day old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Berman of this city. A large crowd attended and the ceremony was carried out in accordance with the practice and teachings of this people, which has been handed down since the days of Abraham. The history of Jewish circumcision dates back to the time Abraham received the rite from Jehovah and Moses established it as a national ordinance and Joshua carried it into effect before the Israelites entered the land of Canaan.

The orthodox Jew adheres to the custom as sacredly as did his fathers six thousand years ago. To him it is the fulfillment of a duty he owes to his God and in which he as devoutly believes as he does any other tenet or doctrine of his religion.

The instruments were all sterilized, everything was made ready. Little Gershon Israel presented a brief ceremony in Hebrew followed and that part of the work was over. The guests were then invited to the dining room where a table groaning under its heavy load of good eats awaited. The table was beautifully decorated in flowers. Here again, Rev. Fram officiating in Hebrew, opened the way to the tempting refreshments, consisting of liver salad, roasted veal, creamed potatoes, peas, veal loaf, fruits, many different kinds of cake, and grape juice and Schlitz.

Those who were fortunate enough to be present upon this occasion were: Rev. A. Fram, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Swartz and children, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Mosesman and family, I. Levinson, Greenville; Mr. and Mrs. M. Lucks and neice, Cooper; Sam Cephman, Mt. Pleasant; Mr. and Mrs. Julius Glasser and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bender and family, A. Rub-inette, Commerce; Miss Lillian Schloss, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. A. Meyerson and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Whaley, Phil H. Foscoe, Ed Brinker, Sig and Miss Bettye Wachholder, Miss Golda Friedman, L. Mosesman, M. Rudman, O. B. Briggs, Joe Perkins, Sulphur Springs.

After the delicious luncheon a collection was taken for the Jewish Relief which amounted to $82. The United States' part in the collection of fourteen million dollars, Texas has been allotted two hundred thousand of this amount and we understand the collection to date has been entirely satisfactory. Those present who gave to the fund were: A. Meyerson, $10; Sam Swartz, $3; J. Bender, $20; Sam Cephman, $10; M. Lucks, $10; Morris Rudman, $5; Sig Wachholder, $5; Julius Glasser, $2; Louis Mosesman, $5; Gi Levinson, $2; A. I. Berman, $5; Mrs. Albert Meyerson, $2.50; Mrs. Mosesman, 50c; Jack Whaley, $1; Mrs. Jack Whaley, $1.

After wishing the father and mother and Little Gershon Israel a happy and successful future, the guests departed for their homes.

Mrs. Harry Kaufman entertained the Wednesday Bridge Club last week. The butterfly motif, suggestive of early Spring, was used. The hostess won the useful prize, a pair of bronze book stops. Miss Ray Goldberg, a bride to be, received a pretty favor. An ice course was served.

Messrs. Seymour Lippard and Harry Berlowitz of Waco were here Wednesday for the Elks' celebration.

Messrs. Labe Golden and Max Wolens spent Sunday in Dallas.

Mr. Harry Jacobs was in Dallas Thursday.

Messrs. Meyer Rachofsky, Morris Ablon, Zaneheld, Kesterman, and Abe Garonzik and a number of others were noted in the crowd from Dallas who came here for the Elks' celebration Wednesday.

The kind of Clothes you paid
 $50 to $100 for last fall

Almost six months ago Monnig's anticipated the new, lower level of prices—and co-operated with their tailors to give you the benefit, even before they derived any of it.

In other words, we observed the narrowest margin of profit—and in most cases no profit at all—in liquidating our stocks so that we would be able to give you the full value of the lowest possible price levels this Spring.

This time last year you were paying from $50 to $100 for the clothes we are offering you today at

$35, $40, $45, $50 up to $60

But these new price levels do not mean that the 31-year tradition for high quality has been sacrificed. The clothes we offer are tailored by Kirschbaum and Fashion Park to the same rigid Monnig standards of quality, and represent a firm economical value to the man who must make his dollars—as well as his clothes—go the farthest.

See the new models in our windows. Come in and try them on. You won't find better clothes—no matter where you look.

WE GIVE S-H GREEN TRADING STAMPS.
